

HONOR

Letting someone know you see how valuable they really are

BOTTOM LINE: Honor God by giving Him credit.

Read James 1:17

God Never Changes

Read this week's Bible verse, James 1:17. Now, go grab a flashlight and find a dark spot. If it is daytime, a closet or your basement might work.

Turn on the flashlight in the darkness. Using your hands, create shadows on the wall or ceiling. If you are with someone else, take turns creating shadows and guessing what they are. Although the shadows you made kept changing, God never changes! He promises to stay that same forever!

Know that God does not change.

Credit Card!

God gives us everything we need! Think of a way God has taken care of one of your needs. Did He put food on your table or provide friends to play with? Take out a piece of paper and something to draw with. Fold that paper in half to make a card. Inside the card, draw a picture of the need God recently met. Inside of the card write the words, "Thank You, God!" After you are finished put this in a safe place to use again tomorrow.

Look for ways that God takes care of you every day.

Give Him Credit

Yesterday you wrote God a card thanking Him for what He has given you. Today, you get to talk to God and thank Him for what He has done. Grab your card from yesterday and thank God for whatever you drew on your card. Pray something like this:

"Dear God, thank You so much for _____ (whatever need He met).
You always keep Your promises and give me what I need. Thank You for always taking care of me!
I love you, God. Amen."

Thank God for giving you everything you need.

Share the Good!

God has given you so much and we can honor Him by sharing with others. Sit down with your parent and think of a way that you can take care of someone else today. Some ideas that might work are: donating old toys to a kid who can use them, drawing someone a beautiful picture and delivering it to them, or sitting down and praying with a friend.

Adults: This could be something super involved like cleaning out old toys and donating them to someone else or it can be as simple as helping your child create a drawing that will brighten someone's day. Think together of someone and something that you can do special for them. Remind your child that they are honoring God when they take care of others!

Ask God to give you opportunities to show others that He cares for them by meeting their needs.

Draw a gift you would like to give to someone.
