Short-term missions often involve circumstances that are quite different from what you may be accustomed to. It is important for us to understand how you handle situations outside of your comfort zone.

- 6) Please write a sentence or two describing how comfortable you are with each of the following and how you think you will react when faced with any of these situations. If you have experienced these situations in the past, how have you reacted to them?
- Sharing a small room with multiple people (of the same gender), possibly without (or with very limited) air conditioning and/or heat. Sharing a bathroom with teammates of the same gender.
 - Less sanitary/ "unsanitary" conditions (including insects, other pests, outdoor bathrooms, limited hot/cold water, not being able to drink water from the tap).
 - Unpredictability or changes in day-to-day activities (e.g., change in times of meals, activities, sleep).
 - Eating new, different kinds of food.
 - Extreme weather conditions (e.g., heat, humidity, dry climate)
 - Seeing rare physical abnormalities or disfigurements (e.g., a child with a severe wound or scar)
 - Extreme material poverty.
 - Asking people for money for the purpose of fundraising for your trip.
 - Sharing your faith with strangers.
- 7) Of the possible scenarios above, which one or two do you think will be the most challenging for you and why?

Section Four: Important Information

- ✓ Participating on a mission trip is a privilege not a right. After careful and prayerful consideration on the part of trip leaders and/or pastoral staff, you may or may not be selected to participate in a mission trip.
- ✓ We reserve the right to suggest you join another team if the minimum number of participants cannot be met or if the number of participants exceeds team's capacity.
- ✓ Each team member is responsible to raise all the necessary financial support BEFORE the travel documents (air tickets and insurance) are purchased – either through fund-raising or self-funding. This is typically 4-6 weeks before the date of departure.
- ✓ If any personal information that you provide is not accurate, you will be held responsible for any financial charges related to changes to your airfare, accommodations etc.
- ✓ If you cancel, for any reason, Grace Chapel maintains complete discretion and control over the air ticket and funds donated, in accordance with the IRS charitable contribution tax codes.

- ✓ If you choose to self-fund the entire cost of the trip, you will still recruit a prayer team to stand with you and your team in prayer. The total goal amount of your CCLE is due when air tickets are purchased, not at the time of departure.
- ✓ Note: If you are not a member of or regular attender at Grace Chapel:
 - You must enclose a letter of recommendation from the pastor of your home church or the church where you are an active/regular attendee.
 - You are required to pay the full cost of the trip including weekend expenses, training and necessary trip / travel insurance.

I understand the requirements for participating on a Grace Chapel mission trip. With the Lord's help, I agree to fulfill these requirements and will be a positive participant on the team. Upon my return, I am committed to seek out opportunities to share meaningfully about my missions learning experience with others at Grace Chapel. I have also read, understand and agree to the Grace Chapel Mission Trip Participation Memo of Understanding included in this document.

Grace Chapel Mission Trip Participation Memo of Understanding

1. The cost of trip.

Each team budget contains the major expenses including airfare or other transportation, trip medical insurance, vehicle rental, housing costs, food, shipping costs, training materials, translators, ministry materials, and construction materials. Every effort is made to minimize costs per participant without jeopardizing the quality effectiveness or safety of the ministry.

2. Paying for the trip

Each team member has the opportunity to raise his or her own financial support in order to go on a CCLE. Each person will be thoroughly equipped and prepared in how to raise support during the missions training retreat. Support raising is typically done through writing letters and also with online social media through the Managed Missions software program. While this task may seem daunting, it is a unique opportunity to see God provide in ways that will strengthen the faith of those going on the missions learning experience.

3. Charitable Contributions

We strongly encourage all donors to take advantage of the Managed Missions online donations system. Tax receipts will be made immediately available to the donor. Both you and your leader can accurately track your fundraising progress through Managed Missions.

If the donation is made by check, it must be made payable to "Grace Chapel." The cancelled check will serve as the tax donation receipt. Please Note: Grace Chapel provides year end giving statements to those whose annual giving exceeds $250.

4. Trip Cancellation

According to Grace Chapel's interpretation of the tax codes and applicable laws, tax deductible contributions are non-refundable. If you cancel, or if Grace Chapel cancels the trip for any reason, Grace

Chapel legally maintains complete discretion and control over the air ticket and funds donated. Any funds donated for CCLE will stay in the short term missions fund and assist other Grace Chapel sponsored CCLE's or our mission partners directly.
