WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

TUESDAY EVENINGS

Fellowship 6:30— 6:45pm

Large group teaching 6:45—7:30pm

Small group discussion 7:30— 8:30pm

Fall dates: September 19—December 5, 2017

The Courtyard, Grace Chapel Lexington campus

59 Worthen Road, Lexington

Who are you? If someone asked you that question, how would you answer? Would you list your accomplishments? Your relationships? Your abilities? All these are important aspects of your life but don't fully answer the question, who are you? If a relationship ends, you lose that title, or those abilities, who are you then? Join us this fall as we study the book of Ephesians to help us discover who we are in Jesus Christ, what God created each of us to do, and the tools to live well in a world system opposed to God.

Whether you have questions about who God is, you're a new follower of Christ, or you've been studying the Bible for years, Paul's letter to the Ephesians will help you unearth personal treasures related to your identity and purpose, and ground you in a life that will never be the same.
